

Crocus biflorus pseudonubigena

|                          |  |
|--------------------------|--|
| Flowering Time           | Spring   |
| Distribution             | S E Turkey   |
| Native Climate           | Mediterranean. Mild winter, warm dry summer          |
| Wild Habitat             | Maquis   |
| Distinctive Features     | Slim petalled flowers, blackish anthers. Clove scent |
| Closest Relatives        | Crocus biflorus nubigena             |
| Cultivation Requirements | Winter protection advised. Warm dry summer rest      |
| Availability             | Occasionally in seed lists                           |

Very similar to subspecies nubigena but usually has narrower petals which give flowers a less significant appearance.

