Crocus x bornmuelleri (biflorus x chrysanthus)

Left:
Crocus x gotoburgensis (scardicus x pelistericus)

Right:
Crocus 'Wandering
Minstrel' (tommasinianus x vernus)

Left:
Crocus boryi x tournefortii

Crocus x paulinae

(Crocus abantensis x ancyrensis, a natural hybrid.)

Below, C. x paulinae – this cross made by Jānis Rukšāns

Crocus antalyensis x flavus hybrid, yellow-blue Ex Hoog

Crocus antalyensis x C. flavus dissectus is much more yellow coloured and it isn't easy to distinguish it from subsp. dissectus. Own hybrid : Janis Ruksans

Crocus kerndorffirum x leichtlinii is a rarely seen hybrid in an unusual shade of blue, quite vigorous.
