

Crocus robertianus

| | |
|--------------------------|---|
| Flowering Time | Autumn |
| Distribution | C & N Greece |
| Native Climate | Mediterranean |
| Wild Habitat | Scrub and thin woodland |
| Distinctive Features | Large flower, lilac, often quite pale. Corm tunic netted fibres |
| Closest Relatives | Crocus sieberi |
| Cultivation Requirements | Cool moist growing season, dryer but not sunbaked in summer |
| Availability | Specialist bulb suppliers and seed lists |

